CHAPTER 4

CHILDREN'S ACCESS ASSESSMENTS

31	Children's access assessments	5
(1)	In this Part, a “children's access assessment” means an assessment of a Part 3 service –
(a)	to determine whether it is possible for children to access the service or a part of the service, and
(b)	if it is possible for children to access the service or a part of the service, to determine whether the child user condition is met in relation to the service or a part of the service.	10
(2)	A provider is only entitled to conclude that it is not possible for children to access a service, or a part of it, if there are systems or processes in place (for example, age verification, or another means of age assurance) that achieve the result that children are not normally able to access the service or that part of it.	15
(3)	The “child user condition” is met in relation to a service, or a part of a service, if –
(a)	there is a significant number of children who are users of the service or of that part of it, or	20
(b)	the service, or that part of it, is of a kind likely to attract a significant number of users who are children.
(4)	For the purposes of subsection (3) –
(a)	the reference to a “significant” number includes a reference to a number which is significant in proportion to the total number of United Kingdom users of a service or (as the case may be) a part of a service;	25
(b)	whether the test in paragraph (a) of that subsection is met is to be based on evidence about who actually uses a service, rather than who the intended users of the service are.
(5)	In this Chapter –	30
(a)	references to children are to children in the United Kingdom;
(b)	references to a part of a service do not include any part of a service that is not, or is not included in, a user-to-user part of a service or a search engine.
32	Duties about children's access assessments	35
(1)	A provider of a Part 3 service must carry out the first children's access assessment at a time set out in, or as provided by, Schedule 3.
(2)	Subsections (3) and (4) apply to a provider of a Part 3 service during any period when the service is not treated as likely to be accessed by children (see section 33).	40
(3)	The provider must carry out children's access assessments of the service not more than one year apart.

- (4) The provider must carry out a children's access assessment of the service –
- (a) before making any significant change to any aspect of the service's design or operation to which such an assessment is relevant,
 - (b) in response to evidence about reduced effectiveness of any systems or processes that are in place as mentioned in section 31(2), or
 - (c) in response to evidence about a significant increase in the number of children using the service.
- (5) If a person is the provider of more than one Part 3 service, children's access assessments must be carried out for each service separately.
- (6) Children's access assessments must be suitable and sufficient for the purposes of this Part.
- (7) A provider must make and keep a written record, in an easily understandable form, of every children's access assessment.

33 Meaning of “likely to be accessed by children”

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, a Part 3 service is to be treated as “likely to be accessed by children” in the following three cases (with the result that the duties set out in sections 10 and 11, or (as the case may be) sections 25 and 26, apply in relation to the service).
- (2) The first case is where a children's access assessment carried out by the provider of the service concludes that –
- (a) it is possible for children to access the service or a part of it, and
 - (b) the child user condition is met in relation to –
 - (i) the service, or
 - (ii) a part of the service that it is possible for children to access.
- This subsection is to be interpreted consistently with section 31.

- (2) But if a draft of a terrorism or CSEA code of practice is submitted under section 39(1) following a review under section 43(2), the Secretary of State may only direct OFCOM to modify the draft if the Secretary of State believes that modifications are required for reasons of national security or public safety. 10

- (3) If, following a review of a terrorism or CSEA code of practice under section 43(2), OFCOM submit a statement to the Secretary of State under section 43(3)(b) (“OFCOM’s review statement”), the Secretary of State may direct OFCOM to modify the code of practice if the Secretary of State believes that modifications are required for reasons of national security or public safety. 15

- (10) Before laying OFCOM’s review statement before Parliament, the Secretary of State may, with OFCOM’s agreement, remove or obscure information in the statement (whether by redaction or otherwise) in order to prevent the disclosure of matters that the Secretary of State considers would be against the interests of national security, public safety or relations with the government of a country outside the United Kingdom.

- (3) If the draft contains modifications made following a direction given under section 40(1)(b), (2) or (3), the negative procedure applies.
- (4) The “affirmative procedure” is as follows –
- (a) a code of practice in the form of the draft laid before Parliament must not be issued by OFCOM unless the draft has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament;
 - (b) if the draft is so approved, the code of practice comes into force at the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which it is issued;
 - (c) if the draft is not so approved, OFCOM must prepare another draft of the code of practice under section 37.
- (5) The “negative procedure” is as follows –

 - (i) OFCOM must issue the code of practice in the form of the draft laid before Parliament, and

- (ii) the code of practice comes into force at the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which it is issued.
- (6) “The 40-day period” has the same meaning as in section 39 (see subsections (5) and (6) of that section).
- (7) This section applies in relation to a draft of amendments of a code of practice laid before Parliament under section 40(9) as it applies in relation to a draft of a code of practice laid under that provision. 5

- (3) Where a code of practice is withdrawn, OFCOM must publish a notice to that effect. 15
- 43 Review of codes of practice
- (1) OFCOM must keep under review each code of practice published under section 42.
- (2) The Secretary of State may require OFCOM to review a terrorism or CSEA code of practice published under section 42 if the Secretary of State considers a review to be necessary for reasons of national security or public safety (and the Secretary of State must notify OFCOM whether the reasons fall into the category of national security or public safety). 20
- (3) OFCOM must carry out a review of the code of practice under subsection (2) as soon as reasonably practicable, and when it is completed – 25
- (a) if OFCOM consider that changes are required, they must prepare a draft of amendments to the code of practice or a draft of a replacement code of practice under section 37, or
- (b) if OFCOM consider that no changes are required, they must submit to the Secretary of State a statement which explains the reasons for that conclusion. 30
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if –
- (a) OFCOM submit a statement under subsection (3)(b) to the Secretary of State,
- (b) the period of 45 days beginning with the day on which the statement was submitted has elapsed, and 35
- (c) the Secretary of State has not given a direction under section 40(3).
- (5) OFCOM must publish the statement as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of the period mentioned in subsection (4)(b), making it clear which code of practice the statement relates to. 40
- (6) In advance of publication, the Secretary of State may make representations to OFCOM about the desirability of removing or obscuring information in the statement (whether by redaction or otherwise) in order to prevent the disclosure of matters that the Secretary of State considers would be against the interests of national security, public safety or relations with the government of a country outside the United Kingdom (and see also section 99(3)).

- (7) In this section “terrorism or CSEA code of practice” means a code of practice under section 37(1) or (2).

44 Minor amendments of codes of practice 5

- (1) This section applies if –
- (a) OFCOM propose to amend a code of practice under section 37, and
 - (b) OFCOM consider that the minor nature of the proposal means that –
 - (i) consultation is unnecessary, and
 - (ii) the proposed amendments should not be required to be laid before Parliament. 10
- (2) OFCOM must notify the Secretary of State of the proposed amendments.
- (3) If the Secretary of State agrees with OFCOM that it is appropriate –

 - (b) section 39 does not apply to the amendments, once prepared.
- (4) If the Secretary of State agrees with OFCOM as mentioned in subsection (3), OFCOM may prepare and issue the amendments of the code of practice.
- (5) Amendments of a code of practice issued under this section come into force at the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which the amendments are issued. 20
- (6) Section 42(2) applies in relation to amendments of a code of practice issued under this section as it applies in relation to amendments of a code of practice issued under section 39 or 41.

Alternative measures

- (5) A provider of a Part 3 service who seeks to comply with a relevant duty by acting otherwise than by taking or using a measure described in a code of practice or a fraudulent advertising code of practice which is recommended for the purpose of compliance with the duty must have regard to the importance of the following (where relevant) – 15
- (a) protecting the right of users and (in the case of search services) interested persons to freedom of expression within the law, and 20
- (b) protecting the privacy of users.
- (6) When assessing whether a provider of a Part 3 service is compliant with a relevant duty where the provider has acted otherwise than by taking or using a measure described in a code of practice or a fraudulent advertising code of practice which is recommended for the purpose of compliance with the duty, OFCOM must consider the extent to which the alternative measures taken or in use by the provider – 25

- (2) Those principles must be such as appear to OFCOM to be likely to secure, on the basis of such estimates of the likely costs as it is practicable for them to make – 35
- (a) that on a year by year basis, the aggregate amount of the fees payable to OFCOM under section 71 is sufficient to meet, but does not exceed, the annual cost to OFCOM of the exercise of their online safety functions;

- (9) For the purposes of this section –
- (a) OFCOM’s costs of the exercise of their online safety functions during a charging year include the costs of preparations for the exercise of their online safety functions incurred during that year; and 30

 - (c) one part for regulated user-to-user services meeting the Category 2B threshold conditions.
- (3) OFCOM must assess Part 3 services, as follows –
- (a) OFCOM must assess each regulated user-to-user service which they consider is likely to meet the Category 1 threshold conditions, to determine whether the service does, or does not, meet those conditions; 30
 - (b) OFCOM must assess each regulated search service and combined service which they consider is likely to meet the Category 2A threshold conditions, to determine whether the service does, or does not, meet those conditions; 35
 - (c) OFCOM must assess each regulated user-to-user service which they consider is likely to meet the Category 2B threshold conditions, to determine whether the service does, or does not, meet those conditions.
- (4) If OFCOM consider that a service meets the relevant threshold conditions, they must add entries relating to that service to the relevant part of the register established under subsection (2). 40
- (5) But –
- (a) if OFCOM consider that a regulated user-to-user service meets the Category 1 threshold conditions and the Category 2B threshold conditions (only), entries relating to that service are to be added to the part of the register established under subsection (2)(a) (only); 45

- (b) if OFCOM consider that a combined service meets the Category 1 threshold conditions, the Category 2A threshold conditions and the Category 2B threshold conditions, entries relating to that service are to be added to the parts of the register established under subsection (2)(a) and (b) (only). 5
- (6) If OFCOM consider that a combined service –
- (a) meets the Category 2A threshold conditions, and
 - (b) meets either the Category 1 threshold conditions or the Category 2B threshold conditions (but not both),
- entries relating to that service are to be added to the part of the register established under subsection (2)(b) and to the part of the register established under subsection (2)(a) or (c) (whichever applies). 10
- (7) Each part of the register must contain –
- (a) the name, and a description, of each service that, in OFCOM's opinion, meets the relevant threshold conditions, and 15
 - (b) the name of the provider of each such service.
- (8) OFCOM must publish the register.
- (9) When assessing whether a Part 3 service does, or does not, meet the relevant threshold conditions, OFCOM must take such steps as are reasonably practicable to obtain or generate information or evidence for the purposes of the assessment. 20
- (10) In this Act –

 - (c) a “Category 2B service” means a regulated user-to-user service for the time being included in the part of the register established under subsection (2)(c). 30

82 Duty to maintain register

- (1) If regulations are made under paragraph 1(1) of Schedule 10 which amend or replace regulations previously made under that provision, OFCOM must, as soon as reasonably practicable after the date on which the amending or replacement regulations come into force – 35
- (a) assess each regulated user-to-user service which they consider is likely to meet the new Category 1 threshold conditions, to determine whether the service does, or does not, meet those conditions, and
 - (b) make any necessary changes to the register. 40
- (2) If regulations are made under paragraph 1(2) of Schedule 10 which amend or replace regulations previously made under that provision, OFCOM must, as soon as reasonably practicable after the date on which the amending or replacement regulations come into force –
- (a) assess each regulated search service and combined service which they consider is likely to meet the new Category 2A threshold conditions, to 45

- determine whether the service does, or does not, meet those conditions, and

- (3) If regulations are made under paragraph 1(3) of Schedule 10 which amend or replace regulations previously made under that provision, OFCOM must, as soon as reasonably practicable after the date on which the amending or replacement regulations come into force – 5
- (a) assess each regulated user-to-user service which they consider is likely to meet the new Category 2B threshold conditions, to determine whether the service does, or does not, meet those conditions, and 10
- (b) make any necessary changes to the register.
- (4) At any other time, if OFCOM consider that a Part 3 service not included in a particular part of the register is likely to meet the threshold conditions relevant to that part, OFCOM must – 15
- (a) assess the service accordingly, and
- (b) (subject to section 81(5)) if they consider that the service meets the relevant conditions, add entries relating to that service to that part of the register.
- (5) Nothing in subsection (3) or (4) requires OFCOM to assess a Category 1 service to determine whether the service meets the Category 2B threshold conditions. 20
- (6) A provider of a Part 3 service included in the register may at any time request OFCOM to remove entries relating to that service from the register, or from a particular part of the register.
- (7) If OFCOM are satisfied, on the basis of evidence submitted by a provider with such a request, that since the registration day there has been a change to the service or to regulations under paragraph 1 of Schedule 10 which appears likely to be relevant, OFCOM must – 25
- (a) assess the service, and
- (b) notify the provider of OFCOM's decision.
- (8) OFCOM must remove entries relating to a Part 3 service from the relevant part of the register if, following an assessment of the service, they consider that it no longer meets the threshold conditions relevant to that part. 30
- (9) Section 81(9) applies to an assessment under this section as it applies to an assessment under section 81.
- (10) OFCOM must re-publish the register each time a change is made to it. 35
- (11) See section 138 for provision about appeals against a decision to include a service in the register (or in a particular part of the register), or not to remove a service from the register (or from a particular part of the register).
- (12) In this section – 40
- “the register” means the register established under section 81;
- “the registration day”, in relation to a Part 3 service, means –

CHAPTER 3

RISK ASSESSMENTS OF REGULATED USER-TO-USER SERVICES AND REGULATED SEARCH SERVICES

83 OFCOM's register of risks, and risk profiles, of Part 3 services

- | | |
|--|----|
| (1) OFCOM must carry out risk assessments to identify and assess the following risks of harm presented by Part 3 services of different kinds – | 5 |
| (a) the risk of harm to individuals in the United Kingdom presented by illegal content; | |
| (b) the risk of harm to children in the United Kingdom, in different age groups, presented by content that is harmful to children; | 10 |
| (c) the risk of harm to adults in the United Kingdom presented by content that is harmful to adults present on regulated user-to-user services. | |
| (2) The risk assessments must, among other things, identify characteristics of different kinds of Part 3 services that are relevant to such risks of harm, and assess the impact of those kinds of characteristics on such risks. | 15 |
| (3) OFCOM – | |
| (a) may combine assessment of any or all of the risks of harm mentioned in subsection (1), or may carry out separate assessments of those risks; | |
| (b) in the case of the risks of harm mentioned in subsection (1)(a) and (b), may assess regulated user-to-user services and regulated search services separately or together. | 20 |
| (4) The findings of each risk assessment are to be reflected, as soon as reasonably practicable after completion, in a register of risks of Part 3 services prepared and published by OFCOM. | |
| (5) As soon as reasonably practicable after completing their assessment of a risk of harm mentioned in a particular paragraph of subsection (1), OFCOM must prepare risk profiles for Part 3 services which relate to that risk of harm. | 25 |
| (6) But in preparing the risk profiles which relate to the risk of harm mentioned in subsection (1)(c), OFCOM must not take into account anything relating to non-designated content that is harmful to adults. | 30 |
| (7) For the purposes of the risk profiles, OFCOM may group Part 3 services together in whichever way they consider appropriate, taking into account – | |
| (a) the characteristics of the services, and | |
| (b) the risk levels and other matters identified in the relevant risk assessment. | 35 |
| (8) OFCOM must publish risk profiles prepared under this section. | |
| (9) OFCOM must from time to time review and revise the risk assessments and risk profiles so as to keep them up to date. | |
| (10) References in this section to Part 3 services – | |
| (a) in the case of a risk assessment or risk profiles which relate only to regulated user-to-user services or to regulated search services, are to be read as references to the kind of service in question; | 40 |

- (b) in the case of a risk assessment or risk profiles which relate only to the risk of harm mentioned in subsection (1)(c), are to be read as references to regulated user-to-user services.
- (11) References in this section to regulated search services include references to the search engine of combined services. 5
- (12) In this section the “characteristics” of a service include its functionalities, user base, business model, governance and other systems and processes.

 - “illegal content” has the same meaning as in Part 3 (see section 52);
 - “non-designated content that is harmful to adults” means content that is harmful to adults other than priority content that is harmful to adults. 15

84 OFCOM’s guidance about risk assessments

- (1) As soon as reasonably practicable after OFCOM have published the first risk profiles relating to the risk of harm from illegal content, OFCOM must produce guidance to assist providers of Part 3 services in complying with their duties to carry out illegal content risk assessments under section 8 or 23. 20
- (2) As soon as reasonably practicable after OFCOM have published the first risk profiles relating to the risk of harm to children, OFCOM must produce guidance to assist providers of Part 3 services in complying with their duties to carry out children’s risk assessments under section 10 or 25.
- (3) As soon as reasonably practicable after OFCOM have published the first risk profiles relating to the risk of harm to adults, OFCOM must produce guidance to assist providers of Category 1 services in complying with their duties to carry out adults’ risk assessments under section 12. 25
- (4) Before producing any guidance under this section (including revised or replacement guidance), OFCOM must consult the Information Commissioner. 30
- (5) OFCOM must revise guidance under this section from time to time in response to further risk assessments under section 83 or to revisions of the risk profiles.
- (6) OFCOM must publish guidance under this section (and any revised or replacement guidance).
- (7) If the risk profiles mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) relate to regulated user-to-user services only or to regulated search services only, those subsections are to be read as requiring the production of guidance relating only to regulated user-to-user services or to regulated search services, as the case may be. 35
- (8) References in subsection (7) to regulated search services include references to the search engine of combined services. 40
- (9) In this section –

|-----|--|----|
| (1) | If OFCOM consider that it is necessary and proportionate to do so, they may give a notice described in subsection (2), (3) or (4) relating to a regulated user-to-user service or a regulated search service to the provider of the service. | 5 |
| (2) | A notice under subsection (1) that relates to a regulated user-to-user service is a notice requiring the provider of the service to do either or both of the following— | 10 |
| | (a) use accredited technology to identify terrorism content communicated publicly by means of the service and to swiftly take down that content; | |
| | (b) use accredited technology to identify CSEA content, whether communicated publicly or privately by means of the service, and to swiftly take down that content. | 15 |
| (3) | A notice under subsection (1) that relates to a regulated search service is a notice requiring the provider of the service to do either or both of the following— | |
| | (a) use accredited technology to identify search content of the service that is terrorism content and to swiftly take measures designed to secure, so far as possible, that search content of the service no longer includes terrorism content identified by the technology; | 20 |
| | (b) use accredited technology to identify search content of the service that is CSEA content and to swiftly take measures designed to secure, so far as possible, that search content of the service no longer includes CSEA content identified by the technology. | 25 |
| (4) | A notice under subsection (1) that relates to a combined service is a notice requiring the provider of the service to do any of the following— | |
| | (a) use accredited technology as described in subsection (2)(a) or (b), or both, in relation to the user-to-user part of the service; | 30 |

| (5) | For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3), a requirement to take down terrorism or CSEA content, or to take measures to secure that search content does not include terrorism or CSEA content, may be complied with by the use of accredited technology alone or by means of the technology together with the use of human moderators to review terrorism or CSEA content (as the case may be) identified by the technology. | 40 |
| (6) | See section 104 for provision about matters which OFCOM must consider before giving a notice under subsection (1). | |
| (7) | OFCOM may give a notice under subsection (1) to a provider relating to a service, or (in the case of a notice described in subsection (4)(a) or (b)) part of a | 45 |

- service, only after giving a warning notice to the provider that they intend to give such a notice relating to that service or that part of it.
- (8) The warning notice under subsection (7) must –

 - (e) state that the provider may make representations to OFCOM (with any supporting evidence), and
 - (f) specify the period within which representations may be made.
- (9) A notice under subsection (1) that relates to both the user-to-user part of a combined service and the search engine of the service (as described in subsection (4)(c)) may be given to the provider of the service only if – 15
- (a) two separate warning notices have been given to the provider (one relating to the user-to-user part of the service and the other relating to the search engine), or 20
 - (b) a single warning notice relating to both the user-to-user part of the service and the search engine has been given to the provider.
- (10) A notice under subsection (1) may not be given to a provider until the period allowed by the warning notice for the provider to make representations has expired. 25
- (11) A notice under subsection (1) relating to terrorism content present on a service must identify the content, or parts of the service that include content, that OFCOM consider is communicated publicly on that service (see section 185).
- (12) For the meaning of “accredited” technology, see section 105(9) and (10).
- 104 Matters relevant to a decision to give a notice under section 103(1) 30
- (1) This section specifies the matters which OFCOM must particularly consider in deciding whether it is necessary and proportionate to give a notice under section 103(1) relating to a Part 3 service to the provider of the service.
- (2) The matters are as follows – 35
- (a) the kind of service it is;
 - (b) the functionalities of the service;
 - (c) the user base of the service;
 - (d) in the case of a notice relating to a user-to-user service (or to the user-to-user part of a combined service), the prevalence of relevant content on the service, and the extent of its dissemination by means of the service; 40
 - (e) in the case of a notice relating to a search service (or to the search engine of a combined service), the prevalence of search content of the service that is relevant content;
 - (f) the level of risk of harm to individuals in the United Kingdom presented by relevant content, and the severity of that harm; 45

(g)	the systems and processes used by the service which are designed to identify and remove relevant content;
(h)	the extent to which the use of the specified technology would or might result in interference with users' right to freedom of expression within the law;	5
(i)	the level of risk of the use of the specified technology resulting in a breach of any statutory provision or rule of law concerning privacy that is relevant to the use or operation of the service (including, but not limited to, any such provision or rule concerning the processing of personal data);	10
(j)	whether the use of any less intrusive measures than the specified technology would be likely to achieve a significant reduction in the amount of relevant content.
(3)	The references to relevant content in subsection (2)(f) and (j) are to—
(a)	in the case of a user-to-user service (or the user-to-user part of a combined service), relevant content present on the service;	15
(b)	in the case of a search service (or the search engine of a combined service), search content of the service that is relevant content.
(4)	In this section—
	“relevant content” means terrorism content or CSEA content or both those kinds of content (depending on the kind, or kinds, of content in relation to which the specified technology is to operate);	20
	“specified technology” means the technology to be specified in the notice under section 103(1).
105	Notices under section 103(1): supplementary	25
(1)	In this section “a notice” means a notice under section 103(1) (including a further notice under that provision).
(2)	If a provider is already using accredited technology in relation to the service in question, a notice may require the provider to use it more effectively (specifying the ways in which that must be done).	30
(3)	A notice relating to a user-to-user service (or to the user-to-user part of a combined service) may also require a provider to operate an effective complaints procedure allowing for United Kingdom users to challenge the provider for taking down content which they have generated, uploaded or shared on the service.	35
(4)	A notice relating to a search service (or to the search engine of a combined service) may also require a provider to operate an effective complaints procedure allowing for an interested person (see section 181(7)) to challenge measures taken or in use by the provider that result in content relating to that interested person no longer appearing in search results of the service.	40
(5)	A notice must—
(a)	give OFCOM's reasons for their decision to give the notice,
(b)	contain details of the requirements imposed by the notice,
(c)	contain details of the technology to be used,
(d)	contain details about the manner in which the technology is to be implemented,	45
(e)	specify a reasonable period for compliance with the notice,

- (f) specify the period for which the notice is to have effect,
 - (g) contain details of the rights of appeal under section 139,
 - (h) contain information about when OFCOM intend to review the notice (see section 106), and
 - (i) contain information about the consequences of not complying with the notice (including information about the further kinds of enforcement action that it would be open to OFCOM to take). 5
- (6) A notice may impose requirements for a period of up to 36 months beginning with the last day of the period specified in the notice in accordance with subsection (5)(e). 10
 - (7) A notice may impose requirements only in relation to the operation of a Part 3 service –
 - (a) in the United Kingdom, or
 - (b) as it affects United Kingdom users of the service.
 - (8) OFCOM may vary or revoke a notice given to a provider by notifying the provider to that effect. 15
 - (9) For the purposes of section 103 and this section, technology is “accredited” if it is accredited (by OFCOM or another person appointed by OFCOM) as meeting minimum standards of accuracy in the detection of terrorism content or CSEA content (as the case may be). 20
 - (10) Those minimum standards of accuracy must be such standards as are for the time being approved and published by the Secretary of State, following advice from OFCOM.
- 106 Review and further notice under section 103(1)
- (1) This section applies where OFCOM have given a provider of a Part 3 service a notice under section 103(1). 25
 - (2) The power conferred by section 105(8) includes power to revoke the notice if there are reasonable grounds for believing that the provider is failing to comply with it.
 - (3) If a notice is revoked as mentioned in subsection (2), OFCOM may give the provider a further notice under section 103(1) if they consider that it is necessary and proportionate to do so (taking into account the matters mentioned in section 104). 30
 - (4) Except where a notice under section 103(1) is revoked as mentioned in subsection (2), OFCOM must, before the end of the period for which the notice has effect, carry out a review of the provider’s use of technology as required by the notice. 35
 - (5) The review must consider –
 - (a) the extent to which the technology specified in the notice has been used, and
 - (b) the effectiveness of its use. 40
 - (6) Following the review, and after consultation with the provider, OFCOM may give the provider a further notice under section 103(1) if they consider that it is necessary and proportionate to do so (taking into account the matters mentioned in section 104). 45

- (7) If a further notice under section 103(1) is given, subsections (3) to (6) apply again.
- (8) A further notice under section 103(1) may require the use of different accredited technology from an earlier notice under that provision.
- (9) Section 103(7) to (10) (warning notice) do not apply in relation to a further notice under section 103(1). 5

107 OFCOM's guidance about functions under this Chapter

- (1) OFCOM must produce guidance for providers of Part 3 services about how OFCOM propose to exercise their functions under this Chapter.

- (3) OFCOM must keep the guidance under review.
- (4) OFCOM must publish the guidance (and any revised or replacement guidance).
- (5) In exercising their functions under this Chapter, or deciding whether to exercise them, OFCOM must have regard to the guidance for the time being published under this section. 15

- (2) OFCOM must send a copy of the report to the Secretary of State, and the Secretary of State must lay it before Parliament. 25
- (3) For further provision about reports under this section, see section 137.

- “search results” has the meaning given by section 51(3); 30
- “terrorism content” and “CSEA content” have the same meaning as in Part 3 (see section 52).

CHAPTER 6

ENFORCEMENT POWERS

Provisional notices and confirmation decisions

110 Provisional notice of contravention

- | | |
|---|----|
| (1) OFCOM may give a notice under this section (a “provisional notice of contravention”) relating to a regulated service to the provider of the service if they consider that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the provider has failed, or is failing, to comply with any enforceable requirement (see section 111) that applies in relation to the service. | 5 |
| (2) OFCOM may also give a provisional notice of contravention to a person on either of the grounds in subsection (3). | 10 |
| (3) The grounds are that— | |
| (a) the person has been given an information notice and OFCOM consider that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the person has failed, or is failing, to comply with either of the duties set out in section 86(6) (duties in relation to information notices), or | 15 |
| (b) the person is required by a skilled person appointed under section 88 to give assistance to the skilled person, and OFCOM consider that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the person has failed, or is failing, to comply with the duty set out in subsection (6) of that section to give such assistance. | 20 |
| (4) A provisional notice of contravention given to a person must— | |
| (a) specify the duty or requirement with which (in OFCOM’s opinion) the person has failed, or is failing, to comply, and | |
| (b) give OFCOM’s reasons for their opinion that the person has failed, or is failing, to comply with it. | 25 |
| (5) A provisional notice of contravention may also contain details as mentioned in subsection (6) or (7), or both. | |
| (6) A provisional notice of contravention may specify steps that OFCOM consider the person needs to take in order to— | 30 |
| (a) comply with the duty or requirement, or | |
| (b) remedy the failure to comply with it. | |
| (7) A provisional notice of contravention may state that OFCOM propose to impose a penalty on the person, and in such a case the notice must— | |
| (a) state the reasons why OFCOM propose to impose a penalty, | 35 |
| (b) state whether OFCOM propose to impose a penalty of a single amount, a penalty calculated by reference to a daily rate, or both penalties (see section 117(1)), | |
| (c) indicate the amount of a penalty that OFCOM propose to impose, including (in relation to a penalty calculated by reference to a daily rate) the daily rate and how the penalty would be calculated, | 40 |
| (d) in relation to a penalty calculated by reference to a daily rate, specify or describe the period for which OFCOM propose that the penalty should be payable, and | |

- (e) state the reasons for proposing a penalty of that amount, including any aggravating or mitigating factors that OFCOM propose to take into account.
- (8) A provisional notice of contravention given to a person must –
 - (a) state that the person may make representations to OFCOM (with any supporting evidence) about the matters contained in the notice, and 5
 - (b) specify the period within which such representations may be made.
- (9) A provisional notice of contravention may be given in respect of a failure to comply with more than one enforceable requirement.
- (10) Where a provisional notice of contravention is given in respect of a continuing failure, the notice may be given in respect of any period during which the failure has continued, and must specify that period. 10
- (11) Where a provisional notice of contravention is given to a person in respect of a failure to comply with a duty or requirement (“the first notice”), a further provisional notice of contravention in respect of a failure to comply with that same duty or requirement may be given to the person only – 15
 - (a) in respect of a separate instance of the failure after the first notice was given,
 - (b) where a period was specified in the first notice in accordance with subsection (10), in respect of the continuation of the failure after the end of that period, or 20
 - (c) if the first notice has been withdrawn (without a confirmation decision being given to the person in respect of the failure).

112 Confirmation decisions

- (1) This section applies if –
 - (a) OFCOM have given a provisional notice of contravention to a person in relation to a failure to comply with a duty or requirement (or with duties or requirements), and 5
 - (b) the period allowed for representations has expired.

A duty or requirement to which the provisional notice of contravention relates is referred to in this section as a “notified requirement”. 10
- (2) If, after considering any representations and evidence, OFCOM decide not to give the person a notice under this section, they must inform the person of that fact.
- (3) If OFCOM are satisfied that the person has failed, or has been failing, to comply with a notified requirement, OFCOM may give the person a notice under this section (a “confirmation decision”) confirming that that is OFCOM’s opinion. 15
- (4) A confirmation decision and a notice under section 103(1) may be given in respect of the same failure.
- (5) A confirmation decision given to a person may –
 - (a) require the person to take steps as mentioned in section 113; 20
 - (b) require the person to pay a penalty as mentioned in section 117;
 - (c) require the person to do both those things (or neither of them).
- (6) See sections 114 and 115 for further provision which a confirmation decision may include in cases of failure to comply with duties about risk assessments or children’s access assessments. 25

113 Confirmation decisions: requirements to take steps

- (1) A confirmation decision may require the person to whom it is given to take such steps as OFCOM consider appropriate (including steps relating to the use of a system or process) for either or both of the following purposes –
 - (a) complying with a notified requirement; 30
 - (b) remedying the failure to comply with a notified requirement.
- (2) But see section 116 for constraints on OFCOM’s power to include in a confirmation decision requirements as described in subsection (1) relating to the use of proactive technology.
- (3) A confirmation decision may impose requirements as described in subsection (1) only in relation to the design or operation of a regulated service – 35
 - (a) in the United Kingdom, or
 - (b) as it affects United Kingdom users of the service.
- (4) A confirmation decision that includes requirements as described in subsection (1) must – 40
 - (a) specify the steps that are required,
 - (b) give OFCOM’s reasons for their decision to impose those requirements,
 - (c) specify each notified requirement to which the steps relate,

- (d) specify the period during which the failure to comply with a notified requirement has occurred, and whether the failure is continuing,
 - (e) specify a reasonable period within which each of the steps specified in the decision must be taken or, if a step requires the use of a system or process, a reasonable period within which the system or process must begin to be used (but see subsection (5) in relation to information duties), 5
 - (f) (if relevant) specify the period for which a system or process must be used,
 - (g) contain details of the rights of appeal under section 139, and 10
 - (h) contain information about the consequences of not complying with the requirements included in the decision (including information about the further kinds of enforcement action that it would be open to OFCOM to take).
- (5) A confirmation decision that requires a person to take steps for the purpose of complying with an information duty may require the person to take those steps immediately. 15
- (6) A person to whom a confirmation decision is given has a duty to comply with requirements included in the decision which are of a kind described in subsection (1). 20
- (7) The duty under subsection (6) is enforceable in civil proceedings by OFCOM—
- (a) for an injunction,
 - (b) for specific performance of a statutory duty under section 45 of the Court of Session Act 1988, or
 - (c) for any other appropriate remedy or relief. 25
- (8) In this section—
 “information duty” means a duty set out in section 86(6);
 “notified requirement” has the meaning given by section 112.

114 Confirmation decisions: risk assessments

- (1) This section applies if— 30
- (a) OFCOM are satisfied that a provider of a Part 3 service has failed to comply with a risk assessment duty,
 - (b) based on evidence resulting from OFCOM's investigation into that failure, OFCOM have identified a risk of serious harm to individuals in the United Kingdom arising from a particular aspect of the service (“the identified risk”), and 35
 - (c) OFCOM consider that the identified risk is not effectively mitigated or managed.
- (2) A confirmation decision given to the provider of the service—
- (a) if the identified risk relates to illegal content, may include a determination that the duty set out in section 9(2) or 24(2) (as the case may be) applies as if an illegal content risk assessment carried out by the provider had identified that risk; 40
 - (b) if the identified risk relates to content that is harmful to children, may include a determination that the duty set out in section 11(2)(a) or 26(2)(a) (as the case may be) applies as if a children's risk assessment carried out by the provider had identified that risk. 45

- (3) A confirmation decision which includes a determination as mentioned in subsection (2) must –
- (a) give details of the identified risk,
 - (b) specify the duty to which the determination relates, and
 - (c) specify the date by which measures (at the provider's discretion) to comply with that duty must be taken or must begin to be used. 5
- (4) A determination as mentioned in subsection (2) ceases to have effect on the date on which the provider of the service complies with the risk assessment duty with which the provider had previously failed to comply (and accordingly, from that date the duty to which the determination relates applies without the modification mentioned in that subsection). 10
- (5) In this section –
- “children's risk assessment” has the meaning given by section 10 or 25 (as the case may be);
 - “content that is harmful to children” has the same meaning as in Part 3 (see section 53); 15
 - “illegal content” has the same meaning as in Part 3 (see section 52);
 - “illegal content risk assessment” has the meaning given by section 8 or 23 (as the case may be);
 - “risk assessment duty” means a duty set out in – 20
 - (a) section 8,
 - (b) section 10,
 - (c) section 23, or
 - (d) section 25.
- 115 Confirmation decisions: children's access assessments 25
- (1) This section applies if OFCOM are satisfied that a provider of a Part 3 service has failed to comply with a duty set out in section 32 (duties about children's access assessments).
- (2) If OFCOM include in a confirmation decision a requirement to take steps relating to the carrying out of a children's access assessment of a service, they must require that assessment to be completed within three months of the date of the confirmation decision. 30
- (3) OFCOM may vary a confirmation decision which includes a requirement as mentioned in subsection (2) to extend the deadline for completion of a children's access assessment. 35
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if, based on evidence that OFCOM have about a service resulting from their investigation into compliance with a duty set out in section 32, OFCOM consider that –
- (a) it is possible for children to access the service or a part of it, and
 - (b) the child user condition is met in relation to – 40
 - (i) the service, or
 - (ii) a part of the service that it is possible for children to access.
- (5) OFCOM may include in the confirmation decision given to the provider of the service –
- (a) a determination that the duties set out in sections 10 and 11, or (as the case may be) sections 25 and 26, must be complied with – 45

- (i) from the date of the confirmation decision, or
 - (ii) from a later date specified in that decision;
 - (b) provision about the circumstances in which that determination may be treated as no longer applying in relation to the service.
- (6) Subsection (4) is to be interpreted consistently with section 31. 5
- (7) In this section, “children’s access assessment” has the meaning given by section 31.

116 Confirmation decisions: proactive technology

- (1) This section sets out constraints on OFCOM’s power to include in a confirmation decision a requirement to take steps to use a kind, or one of the kinds, of proactive technology specified in the decision (a “proactive technology requirement”). 10
- (2) A proactive technology requirement may be imposed in a confirmation decision only if the decision is given to the provider of a Part 3 service.
- (3) A proactive technology requirement may be imposed in a confirmation decision only for the purpose of complying with, or remedying the failure to comply with, any of the duties set out in— 15
- (a) section 9(2) or (3) (illegal content),
 - (b) section 11(2) or (3) (children’s online safety),
 - (c) section 24(2) or (3) (illegal content), 20
 - (d) section 26(2) or (3) (children’s online safety), or
 - (e) section 34(1) or 35(1) (fraudulent advertising).
- (4) Proactive technology may be required to be used on or in relation to any Part 3 service or any part of such a service, but if and to the extent that the technology operates (or may operate) by analysing content that is user-generated content in relation to the service, or metadata relating to such content, the technology may not be required to be used except to analyse— 25
- (a) user-generated content communicated publicly, and
 - (b) metadata relating to user-generated content communicated publicly.
- (5) Before imposing a proactive technology requirement in relation to a service in a confirmation decision, OFCOM must particularly consider the matters mentioned in subsection (6), so far as they are relevant. 30
- (6) The matters are as follows—
- (a) the kind of service it is;
 - (b) the functionalities of the service; 35
 - (c) the user base of the service;
 - (d) the prevalence of relevant content on the service and the extent of its dissemination by means of the service, or (as the case may be) the prevalence of search content of the service that is relevant content;
 - (e) the level of risk of harm to individuals in the United Kingdom presented by relevant content present on the service, or (as the case may be) search content of the service that is relevant content, and the severity of that harm; 40
 - (f) the degree of accuracy, effectiveness and lack of bias achieved by the kind of technology specified in the decision; 45

- (g) the extent to which the use of the kind of proactive technology specified in the decision would or might result in interference with users' right to freedom of expression within the law;
 - (h) the level of risk of the use of the kind of proactive technology specified in the decision resulting in a breach of any statutory provision or rule of law concerning privacy that is relevant to the use or operation of the service (including, but not limited to, any such provision or rule concerning the processing of personal data); 5
 - (i) whether the use of any less intrusive measures than the proactive technology specified in the decision would be likely to result in compliance with, or would be likely to effectively remedy the failure to comply with, the duty in question. 10
- (7) A confirmation decision that imposes a proactive technology requirement on a provider may also impose requirements about review of the technology by the provider. 15
- (8) A confirmation decision relating to a service which requires the use of technology of a kind mentioned in subsection (4) must identify the content, or parts of the service that include content, that OFCOM consider is communicated publicly on that service (see section 185).
- (9) In this section – 20
- “content that is harmful to children” has the same meaning as in Part 3 (see section 53);
 - “fraudulent advertisement” has the meaning given by section 34 or 35 (depending on the kind of service in question);
 - “illegal content” has the same meaning as in Part 3 (see section 52); 25
 - “relevant content” means illegal content, content that is harmful to children or content consisting of fraudulent advertisements, or any or all of those kinds of content (depending on the duties (as mentioned in subsection (3)) for the purposes of which the proactive technology requirement is imposed); 30
 - “search content” has the same meaning as in Part 3 (see section 51);
 - “user-generated content” has the meaning given by section 49 (see subsections (3) and (4) of that section).

117 Confirmation decisions: penalties

- (a) pay to OFCOM a penalty of a single amount in sterling determined by OFCOM (a “single penalty”) and specified in the confirmation decision;
 - (b) if the confirmation decision includes a requirement of the kind described in section 113(1)(a) in respect of a continuous failure to comply with a notified requirement, pay a daily rate penalty to OFCOM if that same failure continues after the compliance date. 40
- (2) A “daily rate penalty” means a penalty of an amount in sterling determined by OFCOM and calculated by reference to a daily rate. 45
- (3) A confirmation decision may impose separate single penalties for failure to comply with separate notified requirements specified in the decision.

- (4) Where a provisional notice of contravention is given in respect of a period of continuing failure to comply with a notified requirement, no more than one single penalty may be imposed by a confirmation decision in respect of the period of failure specified in the provisional notice of contravention.

- (6) The period specified under subsection (5)(e) for the payment of a single penalty must be at least 28 days beginning with the day on which the confirmation decision is given.
- (7) If a confirmation decision imposes a single penalty and a daily rate penalty, the information mentioned in subsection (5)(a), (b), (d) and (e) must be given in respect of each kind of penalty. 20
- (8) As well as containing the information mentioned in subsection (5), a confirmation decision that imposes a daily rate penalty in respect of a continuous failure to comply with a notified requirement must – 25
- (a) state the daily rate of the penalty and how the penalty is calculated;
 - (b) state that the person will be liable to pay the penalty if that same failure continues after the compliance date;
 - (c) state the date from which the penalty begins to be payable, which must not be earlier than the day after the compliance date; 30
 - (d) provide for the penalty to continue to be payable at the daily rate until –
 - (i) the date on which the notified requirement is complied with,
 - (ii) if the penalty is imposed in respect of a failure to comply with more than one notified requirement, the date on which the last of those requirements is complied with, or 35
 - (iii) an earlier date specified in the confirmation decision.
- (9) In this section –
- “compliance date”, in relation to a notified requirement, means –
 - (a) in a case where the confirmation decision requires steps to be taken immediately to comply with that requirement (see section 113(5)), the date of the confirmation decision; 40
 - (b) in any other case, the last day of the period specified in the confirmation decision in accordance with section 113(4)(e) for compliance with that requirement; 45

123 Service restriction orders 30

- (1) OFCOM may apply to the court for an order under this section (a “service restriction order”) in relation to a regulated service where they consider that –
- (a) the grounds in subsection (3) apply in relation to the service, or
 - (b) in the case of a Part 3 service, the grounds in subsection (4) apply in relation to the service. 35
- (2) A service restriction order is an order imposing requirements on one or more persons who provide an ancillary service (whether from within or outside the United Kingdom) in relation to a regulated service (see subsection (11)).
- (3) The grounds mentioned in subsection (1)(a) are that –
- (a) the provider of the regulated service has failed to comply with an enforceable requirement that applies in relation to the regulated service, 40

- (b) the failure is continuing, and
- (c) any of the following applies –
 - (i) the provider has failed to comply with a requirement imposed by a confirmation decision that is of a kind described in section 113(1) relating to the failure; 5
 - (ii) the provider has failed to pay a penalty imposed by a confirmation decision relating to the failure (and the confirmation decision did not impose any requirements of a kind described in section 113(1));
 - (iii) the provider would be likely to fail to comply with requirements imposed by a confirmation decision if given; 10
 - (iv) the circumstances of the failure or the risks of harm to individuals in the United Kingdom are such that it is appropriate to make the application without having given a provisional notice of contravention, without having given a confirmation decision, or (having given a confirmation decision imposing requirements) without waiting to ascertain compliance with those requirements. 15
- (4) The grounds mentioned in subsection (1)(b) are that –
 - (a) the provider of the Part 3 service has failed to comply with a notice under section 103(1) that relates to the service (notices to deal with terrorism content and CSEA content), and 20
 - (b) the failure is continuing.
- (5) An application by OFCOM for a service restriction order must –
 - (a) specify the regulated service in relation to which the application is made (“the relevant service”), 25

 - (c) specify the grounds on which the application is based, and contain evidence about those grounds,
 - (d) specify the persons on whom (in OFCOM’s opinion) the requirements of the order should be imposed, 30
 - (e) contain evidence as to why OFCOM consider that the persons mentioned in paragraph (d) provide an ancillary service in relation to the relevant service, and specify any such ancillary service provided,
 - (f) specify the requirements which OFCOM consider that the order should impose on such persons, and 35
 - (g) in the case of an application made without notice having been given to the non-compliant provider, or to the persons mentioned in paragraph (d), state why no notice has been given.
- (6) The court may make a service restriction order imposing requirements on a person in relation to the relevant service if the court is satisfied – 40
 - (a) as to the grounds in subsection (3) or the grounds in subsection (4) (as the case may be),
 - (b) that the person provides an ancillary service in relation to the relevant service, 45
 - (c) that it is appropriate to make the order for the purpose of preventing harm to individuals in the United Kingdom, and the order is proportionate to the risk of such harm,
 - (d) in the case of an application made on the ground in subsection (3)(c)(iii) or (iv), that it is appropriate to make the order before a provisional 50

- notice of contravention or confirmation decision has been given, or before compliance with requirements imposed by a confirmation decision has been ascertained (as the case may be), and
- (e) if no notice of the application has been given to the non-compliant provider, or to the persons on whom requirements are being imposed, that it is appropriate to make the order without notice. 5
- (7) When considering whether to make a service restriction order in relation to the relevant service, and when considering what provision it should contain, the court must take into account (among other things) the rights and obligations of all relevant parties, including those of – 10
- (a) the non-compliant provider,
- (b) the person or persons on whom the court is considering imposing the requirements, and
- (c) United Kingdom users of the relevant service.
- (8) A service restriction order made in relation to the relevant service must – 15
- (a) identify the non-compliant provider,
- (b) identify the persons on whom the requirements are imposed, and any ancillary service to which the requirements relate,
- (c) require such persons to take the steps specified in the order, or to put in place arrangements, that have the effect of withdrawing the ancillary service to the extent that it relates to the relevant service (or part of it), or preventing the ancillary service from promoting or displaying content that relates to the relevant service (or part of it) in any way, 20
- (d) specify the date by which the requirements in the order must be complied with, and 25
- (e) specify the date on which the order expires, or the time period for which the order has effect.
- (9) The steps that may be specified or arrangements that may be required to be put in place –
- (a) include steps or arrangements that will or may require the termination of an agreement (whether or not made before the coming into force of this section), or the prohibition of the performance of such an agreement, and 30
- (b) are limited, so far as that is possible, to steps or arrangements relating to the operation of the relevant service as it affects United Kingdom users. 35
- (10) OFCOM must inform the Secretary of State as soon as reasonably practicable after a service restriction order has been made.
- (11) For the purposes of this section, a service is an “ancillary service” in relation to a regulated service if the service facilitates the provision of the regulated service (or part of it), whether directly or indirectly, or displays or promotes content relating to the regulated service (or to part of it). 40
- (12) Examples of ancillary services include –
- (a) services, provided (directly or indirectly) in the course of a business, which enable funds to be transferred in relation to a regulated service, 45
- (b) search engines which generate search results displaying or promoting content relating to a regulated service,
- (c) user-to-user services which make content relating to a regulated service available to users, and

- (d) services which use technology to facilitate the display of advertising on a regulated service (for example, an ad server or an ad network).
- (13) In this section “the court” means –
 - (a) in England and Wales, the High Court or the county court,
 - (b) in Scotland, the Court of Session or a sheriff, and 5
 - (c) in Northern Ireland, the High Court or a county court.

124 Interim service restriction orders

- (1) OFCOM may apply to the court for an interim order under this section (an “interim service restriction order”) in relation to a regulated service where they consider that – 10
 - (a) the grounds in subsection (3) apply in relation to the service, or
 - (b) in the case of a Part 3 service, the grounds in subsection (4) apply in relation to the service.
- (2) An interim service restriction order is an interim order imposing requirements on one or more persons who provide an ancillary service (whether from within or outside the United Kingdom) in relation to a regulated service (see subsection (9)). 15
- (3) The grounds mentioned in subsection (1)(a) are that –
 - (a) it is likely that the provider of the regulated service is failing to comply with an enforceable requirement that applies in relation to the regulated service, and 20
 - (b) the level of risk of harm to individuals in the United Kingdom relating to the likely failure, and the nature and severity of that harm, are such that it would not be appropriate to wait to establish the failure before applying for the order. 25
- (4) The grounds mentioned in subsection (1)(b) are that –
 - (a) it is likely that the provider of the Part 3 service is failing to comply with a notice under section 103(1) that relates to the service (notices to deal with terrorism content and CSEA content), and
 - (b) the level of risk of harm to individuals in the United Kingdom relating to the likely failure, and the nature and severity of that harm, are such that it would not be appropriate to wait to establish the failure before applying for the order. 30
- (5) An application by OFCOM for an interim service restriction order must –
 - (a) specify the regulated service in relation to which the application is made (“the relevant service”), 35
 - (b) specify the provider of that service (“the non-compliant provider”),
 - (c) specify the grounds on which the application is based, and contain evidence about those grounds,
 - (d) specify the persons on whom (in OFCOM’s opinion) the requirements of the order should be imposed, 40
 - (e) contain evidence as to why OFCOM consider that the persons mentioned in paragraph (d) provide an ancillary service in relation to the relevant service, and specify any such ancillary service provided,
 - (f) specify the requirements which OFCOM consider that the order should impose on such persons, and 45

- (g) in the case of an application made without notice having been given to the non-compliant provider, or to the persons mentioned in paragraph (d), state why no notice has been given.
- (6) The court may make an interim service restriction order imposing requirements on a person in relation to the relevant service if the court is satisfied – 5
- (a) as to the ground in subsection (3)(a) or the ground in subsection (4)(a) (as the case may be),
 - (b) that the person provides an ancillary service in relation to the relevant service, 10
 - (c) that there are prima facie grounds to suggest that an application for a service restriction order under section 123 would be successful,
 - (d) that the level of risk of harm to individuals in the United Kingdom relating to the likely failure mentioned in subsection (3)(a) or (4)(a) (whichever applies), and the nature and severity of that harm, are such that it is not appropriate to wait for the failure to be established before making the order, and 15
 - (e) if no notice of the application has been given to the non-compliant provider, or to the persons on whom requirements are being imposed, that it is appropriate to make the order without notice. 20
- (7) An interim service restriction order ceases to have effect on the earlier of –
- (a) the date specified in the order, or the date on which the time period specified in the order expires (as the case may be), and
 - (b) the date on which the court makes a service restriction order under section 123 in relation to the relevant service that imposes requirements on the same persons on whom requirements are imposed by the interim order, or dismisses the application for such an order. 25
- (8) Subsections (7) to (10) of section 123 apply in relation to an interim service restriction order under this section as they apply in relation to a service restriction order under that section. 30
- (9) In this section, “ancillary service” and “the court” have the same meaning as in section 123 (see subsections (11), (12) and (13) of that section).

125 Access restriction orders

- (1) OFCOM may apply to the court for an order under this section (an “access restriction order”) in relation to a regulated service where they consider that – 35
- (a) the grounds in section 123(3) or (4) apply in relation to the service, and
 - (b) either –
 - (i) a service restriction order under section 123 or an interim service restriction order under section 124 has been made in relation to the failure, and it was not sufficient to prevent significant harm arising to individuals in the United Kingdom as a result of the failure, or 40
 - (ii) the likely consequences of the failure are such that if a service restriction order or an interim service restriction order were to be made, it would be unlikely to be sufficient to prevent significant harm arising to individuals in the United Kingdom as a result of the failure, 45

- and in this paragraph, “the failure” means the failure mentioned in section 123(3)(a) or (4)(a) (as the case may be).
- (2) An access restriction order is an order imposing requirements on one or more persons who provide an access facility (whether from within or outside the United Kingdom) in relation to a regulated service (see subsection (10)). 5
- (3) An application by OFCOM for an access restriction order must –
- (a) specify the regulated service in relation to which the application is made (“the relevant service”),
 - (b) specify the provider of that service (“the non-compliant provider”),
 - (c) specify the grounds on which the application is based, and contain evidence about those grounds, 10
 - (d) specify the persons on whom (in OFCOM’s opinion) the requirements of the order should be imposed,
 - (e) contain evidence as to why OFCOM consider that the persons mentioned in paragraph (d) provide an access facility in relation to the relevant service, and specify any such access facility provided, 15
 - (f) specify the requirements which OFCOM consider that the order should impose on such persons, and
 - (g) in the case of an application made without notice having been given to the non-compliant provider, or to the persons mentioned in paragraph (d), state why no notice has been given. 20
- (4) The court may make an access restriction order imposing requirements on a person in relation to the relevant service if the court is satisfied –
- (a) as to the grounds in subsection (1),
 - (b) that the person provides an access facility in relation to the relevant service, 25
 - (c) that it is appropriate to make the order for the purpose of preventing significant harm to individuals in the United Kingdom, and the order is proportionate to the risk of such harm,
 - (d) in the case of an application made on the ground in subsection (3)(c)(iii) or (iv) of section 123 (by virtue of subsection (1)(a)), that it is appropriate to make the order before a provisional notice of contravention or confirmation decision has been given, or before compliance with requirements imposed by a confirmation decision has been ascertained (as the case may be), and 30
 - (e) if no notice of the application has been given to the non-compliant provider, or to the persons on whom requirements are being imposed, that it is appropriate to make the order without notice. 35
- (5) When considering whether to make an access restriction order in relation to the relevant service, and when considering what provision it should contain, the court must take into account (among other things) the rights and obligations of all relevant parties, including those of – 40
- (a) the non-compliant provider,
 - (b) the person or persons on whom the court is considering imposing the requirements, and 45
 - (c) United Kingdom users of the relevant service.
- (6) An access restriction order made in relation to the relevant service must –
- (a) identify the non-compliant provider,

- (b) identify the persons on whom the requirements are imposed, and any access facility to which the requirements relate,
- (c) require such persons to take the steps specified in the order, or to put in place arrangements, to withdraw, adapt or manipulate the access facility in order to impede users' access (by means of that facility) to the relevant service (or to part of it), 5
- (d) specify the date by which the requirements in the order must be complied with, and
- (e) specify the date on which the order expires, or the time period for which the order has effect. 10
- (7) The steps that may be specified or arrangements that may be required to be put in place –
- (a) include steps or arrangements that will or may require the termination of an agreement (whether or not made before the coming into force of this section), or the prohibition of the performance of such an agreement, 15
- (b) are limited, so far as that is possible, to steps or arrangements that impede the access of United Kingdom users, and
- (c) are limited, so far as that is possible, to steps or arrangements that do not affect such users' ability to access any other internet services. 20
- (8) OFCOM must inform the Secretary of State as soon as reasonably practicable after an access restriction order has been made.
- (9) Where a person who provides an access facility takes steps or puts in place arrangements required by an access restriction order, OFCOM may, by notice, require that person to (where possible) notify persons in the United Kingdom who attempt to access the relevant service via that facility of the access restriction order (and where a confirmation decision has been given to the non-compliant provider, the notification must refer to that decision). 25
- (10) For the purposes of this section, a facility is an “access facility” in relation to a regulated service if the person who provides the facility is able to withdraw, adapt or manipulate it in such a way as to impede access (by means of that facility) to the regulated service (or to part of it) by United Kingdom users of that service. 30
- (11) Examples of access facilities include –
- (a) internet access services by means of which a regulated service is made available, and 35
- (b) application stores through which a mobile application for a regulated service may be downloaded or otherwise accessed.
- (12) In this section –
- “the court” means – 40
- (a) in England and Wales, the High Court or the county court,
- (b) in Scotland, the Court of Session or a sheriff, and
- (c) in Northern Ireland, the High Court or a county court;
- “facility” means any kind of service, infrastructure or apparatus enabling users of a regulated service to access the regulated service; 45
- “internet access service” means a service that provides access to virtually all (or just some) of the end points of the internet.

126 Interim access restriction orders

- (1) OFCOM may apply to the court for an interim order under this section (an “interim access restriction order”) in relation to a regulated service where they consider that –
 - (a) the grounds in section 124(3) or (4) apply in relation to the service, and 5
 - (b) either –
 - (i) a service restriction order under section 123 or an interim service restriction order under section 124 has been made in relation to the likely failure, and it was not sufficient to prevent significant harm arising to individuals in the United Kingdom as a result of the failure, or 10
 - (ii) the likely consequences of such a failure would be such that if a service restriction order or an interim service restriction order were to be made, it would be unlikely to be sufficient to prevent significant harm arising to individuals in the United Kingdom as a result of the failure, 15and in this section, “the likely failure” means the likely failure mentioned in section 124(3)(a) or (4)(a) (as the case may be).
- (2) An interim access restriction order is an interim order imposing requirements on one or more persons who provide an access facility (whether from within or outside the United Kingdom) in relation to a regulated service (see subsection (8)). 20
- (3) An application by OFCOM for an interim access restriction order must –
 - (a) specify the regulated service in relation to which the application is made (“the relevant service”), 25
 - (b) specify the provider of that service (“the non-compliant provider”),
 - (c) specify the grounds on which the application is based, and contain evidence about those grounds,
 - (d) specify the persons on whom (in OFCOM’s opinion) the requirements of the order should be imposed, 30
 - (e) contain evidence as to why OFCOM consider that the persons mentioned in paragraph (d) provide an access facility in relation to the relevant service, and specify any such access facility provided,
 - (f) specify the requirements which OFCOM consider that the order should impose on such persons, and 35
 - (g) in the case of an application made without notice having been given to the non-compliant provider, or to the persons mentioned in paragraph (d), state why no notice has been given.
- (4) The court may make an interim access restriction order imposing requirements on a person in relation to the relevant service if the court is satisfied – 40
 - (a) that the ground in section 124(3)(a) or (4)(a) (as the case may be) applies in relation to the service,
 - (b) as to the ground in subsection (1)(b)(i) or (ii),
 - (c) that the person provides an access facility in relation to the relevant service, 45
 - (d) that there are prima facie grounds to suggest that an application for an access restriction order under section 125 would be successful,
 - (e) that the level of risk of harm to individuals in the United Kingdom relating to the likely failure, and the nature and severity of that harm,

- are such that it is not appropriate to wait for the failure to be established before making the order, and
- (f) if no notice of the application has been given to the non-compliant provider, or to the persons on whom requirements are being imposed, that it is appropriate to make the order without notice. 5
- (5) An interim access restriction order ceases to have effect on the earlier of –
- (a) the date specified in the order, or the date on which the time period specified in the order expires (as the case may be), and
- (b) the date on which the court makes an access restriction order under section 125 in relation to the relevant service that imposes requirements on the same persons on whom requirements are imposed by the interim order, or dismisses an application for such an order. 10
- (6) Subsections (5) to (8) of section 125 apply in relation to an interim access restriction order under this section as they apply in relation to an access restriction order under that section. 15
- (7) Where a person who provides an access facility takes steps or puts in place arrangements required by an interim access restriction order, OFCOM may, by notice, require that person to (where possible) notify persons in the United Kingdom who attempt to access the relevant service via that facility of the interim access restriction order. 20
- (8) In this section, “access facility” and “the court” have the same meaning as in section 125 (see subsections (10), (11) and (12) of that section).

127 Interaction with other action by OFCOM

- (1) Where OFCOM apply for a business disruption order in respect of a failure by a provider of a regulated service to comply with an enforceable requirement, nothing in sections 123 to 126 is to be taken to prevent OFCOM also giving the provider – 25
- (a) a confirmation decision in respect of the failure, or
- (b) a penalty notice under section 118 in relation to a confirmation decision in respect of the failure. 30
- (2) Where OFCOM apply for a business disruption order in respect of a failure by a provider of a Part 3 service to comply with a notice under section 103(1) (notices to deal with terrorism content and CSEA content), nothing in sections 123 to 126 is to be taken to prevent OFCOM also giving the provider either or both of the following – 35
- (a) a further notice under section 103(1) (see section 106);
- (b) a penalty notice under section 119(5).
- (3) In this section, a “business disruption order” means – 40
- (a) a service restriction order under section 123,
- (b) an interim service restriction order under section 124,
- (c) an access restriction order under section 125, or
- (d) an interim access restriction order under section 126.

 - (b) a penalty notice under section 118;
 - (c) a penalty notice under section 119(5);
 - (d) a penalty notice under section 120(6).
- (2) OFCOM must publish details identifying the person and describing –
 - (a) the failure (or failures) to which the decision or notice relates, and 10
 - (b) OFCOM's response.
- (3) But OFCOM may not publish anything that, in OFCOM's opinion –
 - (a) is confidential in accordance with subsections (4) and (5), or
 - (b) is otherwise not appropriate for publication.
- (4) A matter is confidential under this subsection if – 15
 - (a) it relates specifically to the affairs of a particular body, and
 - (b) publication of that matter would or might, in OFCOM's opinion, seriously and prejudicially affect the interests of that body.
- (5) A matter is confidential under this subsection if –
 - (a) it relates to the private affairs of an individual, and 20
 - (b) publication of that matter would or might, in OFCOM's opinion, seriously and prejudicially affect the interests of that individual.

Guidance

129 OFCOM's guidance about enforcement action

- (1) OFCOM must produce guidance for providers of regulated services about how OFCOM propose to exercise their functions under this Chapter. 30

- (3) In relation to any enforcement action by OFCOM which relates to a failure by a provider of a regulated service to comply with a relevant duty, the guidance must include provision explaining how OFCOM will take into account the impact (or possible impact) of such a failure on children. 40

- (2) But a complaint under subsection (1) that relates to a single regulated service or that relates to a single provider of one or more regulated services is only admissible if OFCOM consider that— 10
- (a) the complaint is of particular importance, or
- (b) the complaint relates to the impacts on a particularly large number of users of the service or members of the public.
- (3) An entity is an “eligible entity” if the entity meets criteria specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State. 15
- (4) Regulations under subsection (3) must specify as one of the criteria that the entity must be a body representing the interests of users of regulated services, or members of the public, or a particular group of such users or members of the public. 20
- (5) Before making regulations under subsection (3), the Secretary of State must consult—

143 Statement of strategic priorities

- (1) The Secretary of State may designate a statement for the purposes of this section if the requirements set out in section 144 (consultation and parliamentary procedure) are satisfied.
- (2) The statement is a statement prepared by the Secretary of State that sets out strategic priorities of Her Majesty’s Government in the United Kingdom relating to online safety matters. 25
- (3) The statement may, among other things, set out particular outcomes identified with a view to achieving the strategic priorities.
- (4) This section does not restrict the Secretary of State’s powers under any other provision of this Act or any other enactment. 30
- (5) A statement designated under subsection (1) must be published in such manner as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (6) A statement designated under subsection (1) may be amended (including by replacing the whole or a part of the statement with new material) by a subsequent statement designated under that subsection, and this section and sections 78 and 144 apply in relation to any such subsequent statement as they apply in relation to the original statement. 35
- (7) Except as provided by subsection (8), no amendment may be made under subsection (6) within the period of five years beginning with the day on which a statement was most recently designated under subsection (1). 40

- (8) An earlier amendment may be made under subsection (6) if –
- (a) since that day –
 - (i) a Parliamentary general election has taken place, or
 - (ii) there has been a significant change in the policy of Her Majesty's government affecting online safety matters, or
 - (b) the Secretary of State considers that the statement, or any part of it, conflicts with any of OFCOM's general duties (within the meaning of section 3 of the Communications Act).

- (4) After that period has ended the Secretary of State –
- (a) must make any changes to the draft that appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary in view of responses to the consultation, and 20
 - (b) must then lay the draft before Parliament.
- (5) The Secretary of State must then wait until the end of the 40-day period and may not designate the statement if, within that period, either House of Parliament resolves not to approve it.
- (6) “The 40-day period” is the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the draft is laid before Parliament (or, if it is not laid before each House on the same day, the later of the days on which it is laid). 25
- (7) When calculating the 40-day period, any period during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than 4 days is to be ignored. 30

Directions to OFCOM

145 Directions about advisory committees

- (1) The Secretary of State may give OFCOM a direction requiring OFCOM to establish a committee to provide them with advice about online safety matters of a kind specified in the direction. 35

- (5) The Secretary of State may vary or revoke a direction given under this section.

146 Directions in special circumstances 5

- (1) The Secretary of State may give a direction to OFCOM under subsection (2) or (3) if the Secretary of State has reasonable grounds for believing that circumstances exist that present a threat –
 - (a) to the health or safety of the public, or
 - (b) to national security. 10
- (2) A direction under this subsection is a direction requiring OFCOM, in exercising their media literacy functions, to give priority for a specified period to specified objectives designed to address the threat presented by the circumstances mentioned in subsection (1).
- (3) A direction under this subsection is a direction requiring OFCOM to give a public statement notice to –
 - (a) a specified provider of a regulated service, or
 - (b) providers of regulated services generally. 15
- (4) A “public statement notice” is a notice requiring a provider of a regulated service to make a publicly available statement, by a date specified in the notice, about steps the provider is taking in response to the threat presented by the circumstances mentioned in subsection (1). 20
- (5) OFCOM may, by a public statement notice or a subsequent notice, require a provider of a regulated service to provide OFCOM with such information as OFCOM may require for the purpose of responding to that threat. 25
- (6) If a direction under subsection (2) or (3) is given on the ground mentioned in subsection (1)(a), the Secretary of State must publish the reasons for giving the direction.
- (7) The Secretary of State may vary or revoke a direction given under subsection (2) or (3). 30
- (8) If the Secretary of State varies or revokes a direction given under subsection (3), OFCOM may, in consequence, vary or revoke a public statement notice that they have given by virtue of the direction.

- (3) The Secretary of State must consult OFCOM before issuing, revising or replacing the guidance.
- (4) The guidance may not be revised or replaced more frequently than once every three years unless –

- (2) The review –

- (a) must not be carried out before the end of the period of two years beginning with the day on which the last of the provisions of Part 3 comes into force, but
- (b) must be carried out before the end of the period of five years beginning with that day. 5
- (3) The review must, in particular, consider how effective the regulatory framework provided for in this Act is at –
- (a) securing that regulated services are operated using systems and processes that, so far as relevant –
- (i) minimise the risk of harm to individuals in the United Kingdom presented by content on regulated services, 10
- (ii) provide higher levels of protection for children than for adults,
- (iii) provide transparency and accountability to users in relation to actions taken to comply with duties set out in Chapter 2, 3, 4 or 5 of Part 3, Chapter 1 of Part 4, or Part 5, 15
- (iv) protect the right of users and (in the case of search services or combined services) interested persons to freedom of expression within the law, and
- (v) protect users from a breach of any statutory provision or rule of law concerning privacy that is relevant to the use or operation of a regulated service (including, but not limited to, any such provision or rule concerning the processing of personal data); and 20
- (b) ensuring that regulation of services is proportionate, having regard to the level of risk of harm presented by regulated services of different kinds and to the size and capacity of providers. 25
- (4) The review must also, in particular, consider –
- (a) the effectiveness of –
- (i) the information gathering and information sharing powers available to OFCOM, and 30

PART 10

COMMUNICATIONS OFFENCES

Harmful, false and threatening communications offences 10

150 Harmful communications offence

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
- (a) the person sends a message (see section 153),
 - (b) at the time of sending the message—
 - (i) there was a real and substantial risk that it would cause harm to a likely audience, and
 - (ii) the person intended to cause harm to a likely audience, and
 - (c) the person has no reasonable excuse for sending the message.
- (2) For the purposes of this offence an individual is a “likely audience” of a message if, at the time the message is sent, it is reasonably foreseeable that the individual—
- (a) would encounter the message, or
 - (b) in the online context, would encounter a subsequent message forwarding or sharing the content of the message.
- (3) In a case where several or many individuals are a likely audience, it is not necessary for the purposes of subsection (1)(b)(ii) that the person intended to cause harm to any one of them in particular (or to all of them).
- (4) “Harm” means psychological harm amounting to at least serious distress.
- (5) In deciding whether a person has a reasonable excuse for sending a message, one of the factors that the court must consider (if it is relevant in a particular case) is whether the message is, or is intended to be, a contribution to a matter of public interest (but that does not determine the point).
- (6) The following cannot commit an offence under this section—
- (a) a recognised news publisher as defined by section 50;
 - (b) the holder of a licence under the Broadcasting Act 1990 or 1996;
 - (c) the holder of a licence under section 8 of the Wireless Telegraphy Act 2006;
 - (d) the provider of an on-demand programme service.
- (7) An offence under this section cannot be committed in connection with the showing of a film made for cinema to members of the public.
- (8) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—

- (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the maximum summary term for either-way offences or a fine (or both);
- (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine (or both).

151 False communications offence 5

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
 - (a) the person sends a message (see section 153),
 - (b) the message conveys information that the person knows to be false,
 - (c) at the time of sending it, the person intended the message, or the information in it, to cause non-trivial psychological or physical harm to a likely audience, and 10
 - (d) the person has no reasonable excuse for sending the message.
- (2) For the purposes of this offence an individual is a “likely audience” of a message if, at the time the message is sent, it is reasonably foreseeable that the individual— 15
 - (a) would encounter the message, or
 - (b) in the online context, would encounter a subsequent message forwarding or sharing the content of the message.
- (3) In a case where several or many individuals are a likely audience, it is not necessary for the purposes of subsection (1)(c) that the person intended to cause harm to any one of them in particular (or to all of them). 20
- (4) The following cannot commit an offence under this section—
 - (a) a recognised news publisher as defined by section 50;
 - (b) the holder of a licence under the Broadcasting Act 1990 or 1996;
 - (c) the holder of a licence under section 8 of the Wireless Telegraphy Act 2006; 25
 - (d) the provider of an on-demand programme service.
- (5) An offence under this section cannot be committed in connection with the showing of a film made for cinema to members of the public.
- (6) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the maximum term for summary offences or a fine (or both). 30
- (7) In subsection (6) “the maximum term for summary offences” means—
 - (a) if the offence is committed before the time when section 281(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 comes into force, 6 months; 35
 - (b) if the offence is committed after that time, 51 weeks.
- (8) Proceedings for an offence under this section may be brought within the period of 6 months beginning with the date on which evidence sufficient in the opinion of the prosecutor to justify the proceedings comes to the prosecutor’s knowledge. 40
- (9) But such proceedings may not be brought by virtue of subsection (8) more than 3 years after the commission of the offence.
- (10) A certificate signed by the prosecutor as to the date on which the evidence in question came to the prosecutor’s knowledge is conclusive evidence of the date on which it did so; and a certificate to that effect and purporting to be so signed is to be treated as being so signed unless the contrary is proved.

152 Threatening communications offence

- (1) A person commits an offence if—
 - (a) the person sends a message (see section 153), 5
 - (b) the message conveys a threat of death or serious harm, and
 - (c) at the time of sending it, the person—
 - (i) intended an individual encountering the message to fear that the threat would be carried out, or
 - (ii) was reckless as to whether an individual encountering the message would fear that the threat would be carried out. 10
- (2) “Serious harm” means—
 - (a) serious injury amounting to grievous bodily harm within the meaning of the Offences against the Person Act 1861,
 - (b) rape, 15
 - (c) assault by penetration within the meaning of section 2 of the Sexual Offences Act 2003, or
 - (d) serious financial loss.
- (3) In proceedings for an offence under this section relating to a threat of serious financial loss, it is a defence for the person to show that—
 - (a) the threat was used to reinforce a reasonable demand, and
 - (b) the person reasonably believed that the use of the threat was a proper means of reinforcing the demand. 20
- (4) If evidence is adduced which is sufficient to raise an issue with respect to the defence under subsection (3), the court must assume that the defence is satisfied unless the prosecution proves beyond reasonable doubt that it is not. 25
- (5) A person who commits an offence under this section is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding the maximum summary term for either-way offences or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or a fine (or both). 30

153 Interpretation of sections 150 to 152

- (1) This section applies for the purposes of sections 150 to 152, and references in this section to an offence are to an offence under any of those sections.
- (2) A person “sends a message” if the person—
 - (a) sends, transmits or publishes a communication (including an oral communication) by electronic means, or
 - (b) sends a letter or a thing of any other description, and references to a message are to be read accordingly. 35
- (3) A person also “sends a message” if the person—
 - (a) causes a communication (including an oral communication) to be sent, transmitted or published by electronic means, or
 - (b) causes a letter or a thing of any other description to be sent. 40

- (4) But a provider of an internet service by means of which a communication is sent, transmitted or published is not to be regarded as a person who sends a message.
- (5) “Encounter”, in relation to a message, means read, view, hear or otherwise experience the message. 5
- (6) It does not matter whether the content of a message is created by the person who sends it (so for example, in the online context, an offence may be committed by a person who forwards another person’s direct message or shares another person’s post).
- (7) In the application of sections 150 to 152 to the sending, transmission or publication by electronic means of a message consisting of or including a hyperlink to other content – 10
- (a) references to the message are to be read as including references to content accessed directly via the hyperlink, and
- (b) an individual who is a likely audience in relation to the hyperlink for the purposes of section 150 or 151 is to be assumed to be a likely audience in relation to the linked content. 15
- (8) In the application of sections 150 to 152 to the sending of an item on which data is stored electronically, references to the message are to be read as including content accessed by means of the item to which the recipient is specifically directed by the sender. 20
- (9) In the online context, the date on which a person commits an offence in relation to a message is the date on which the message is first sent, transmitted or published by the person.
- (10) “On-demand programme service” has the same meaning as in the Communications Act (see section 368A of that Act), and a person is the “provider” of an on-demand programme service if the person has given notification of the person’s intention to provide that service in accordance with section 368BA of that Act. 25
- 154 Extra-territorial application and jurisdiction 30
- (1) Sections 150(1), 151(1) and 152(1) apply to an act done outside the United Kingdom, but only if the act is done by a United Kingdom person.
- (2) In subsection (1) “United Kingdom person” means –
- (a) an individual who is habitually resident in England and Wales, or
- (b) a body incorporated or constituted under the law of England and Wales. 35
- (3) Proceedings for an offence committed under section 150, 151 or 152 outside the United Kingdom may be taken, and the offence may for incidental purposes be treated as having been committed, at any place in England and Wales.
- 155 Liability of corporate officers 40
- (1) If an offence under section 150, 151 or 152 is committed by a body corporate and it is proved that the offence –
- (a) has been committed with the consent or connivance of an officer of the body corporate, or

(b) is attributable to any neglect on the part of an officer of the body corporate, the officer (as well as the body corporate) commits the offence and is liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

- (2) “Officer”, in relation to a body corporate, means – 5
- (a) a director, manager, associate, secretary or other similar officer, or
 - (b) a person purporting to act in any such capacity.

In paragraph (a) “director”, in relation to a body corporate whose affairs are managed by its members, means a member of the body corporate.

 - (b) A sends or gives such a photograph or film for the purpose of obtaining sexual gratification and is reckless as to whether B will be caused alarm, distress or humiliation. 20
- (2) References to sending or giving such a photograph or film to another person include, in particular –
- (a) sending it to another person by any means, electronically or otherwise,
 - (b) showing it to another person, and 25
 - (c) placing it for a particular person to find.
- (3) “Photograph” includes the negative as well as the positive version.

- (7) In relation to an offence committed before paragraph 24(2) of Schedule 22 to the Sentencing Act 2020 comes into force, the reference in subsection (6)(a) to 12 months is to be read as a reference to six months.” 40

*Repeals and amendments in connection with offences157 Repeals in connection with offences under sections 150, 151 and 152

CODES OF PRACTICE UNDER SECTION 37: PRINCIPLES, OBJECTIVES, CONTENT

General principles

1	In preparing a draft of a code of practice or amendments of a code of practice, OFCOM must – (a) consider the appropriateness of provisions of the code of practice to different kinds and sizes of Part 3 services and to providers of differing sizes and capacities, and (b) have regard to the principles mentioned in paragraph 2.	25
2	The principles are as follows – (a) providers of Part 3 services must be able to understand which provisions of the code of practice apply in relation to a particular service they provide; (b) the measures described in the code of practice must be sufficiently clear, and at a sufficiently detailed level, that providers understand what those measures entail in practice; (c) the measures described in the code of practice must be proportionate and technically feasible: measures that are proportionate or technically feasible for providers of a certain size or capacity, or for services of a certain kind or size, may not be proportionate or technically feasible for providers of a different size or capacity or for services of a different kind or size; (d) the measures described in the code of practice that apply in relation to Part 3 services of various kinds and sizes must be proportionate to	30 35 40

OFCOM’s assessment (under section 83) of the risk of harm presented by services of that kind or size.

Online safety objectives

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 3 | OFCOM must ensure that measures described in codes of practice are compatible with pursuit of the online safety objectives. | 5 |
| 4 | The online safety objectives for regulated user-to-user services are as follows – (a) a service should be designed and operated in such a way that – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) the systems and processes for regulatory compliance and risk management are effective and proportionate to the kind and size of service, 10 (ii) the systems and processes are appropriate to deal with the number of users of the service and its user base, (iii) United Kingdom users (including children) are made aware of, and can understand, the terms of service, 15 (iv) there are adequate systems and processes to support United Kingdom users, (v) (in the case of a Category 1 service) users are offered options to increase their control over the content they encounter and the users they interact with, 20 (vi) the service provides a higher standard of protection for children than for adults, (vii) the different needs of children at different ages are taken into account, (viii) there are adequate controls over access to the service by adults, and 25 (ix) there are adequate controls over access to, and use of, the service by children, taking into account use of the service by, and impact on, children in different age groups; (b) a service should be designed and operated so as to protect individuals in the United Kingdom who are users of the service from harm, including with regard to – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) algorithms used by the service, (ii) functionalities of the service, and (iii) other features relating to the operation of the service. 35 | |
| 5 | The online safety objectives for regulated search services are as follows – (a) a service should be designed and operated in such a way that – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) the systems and processes for regulatory compliance and risk management are effective and proportionate to the kind and size of service, 40 (ii) the systems and processes are appropriate to deal with the number of users of the service and its user base, (iii) United Kingdom users (including children) are made aware of, and can understand, the publicly available statement referred to in sections 24 and 26, 45 (iv) there are adequate systems and processes to support United Kingdom users, | |

- (v) the service provides a higher standard of protection for children than for adults, and
 - (vi) the different needs of children at different ages are taken into account;
 - (b) a service should be assessed to understand its use by, and impact on, children in different age groups; 5
 - (c) a search engine should be designed and operated so as to protect individuals in the United Kingdom who are users of the service from harm, including with regard to –
 - (i) algorithms used by the search engine, 10
 - (ii) functionalities relating to searches (such as a predictive search functionality), and
 - (iii) the indexing, organisation and presentation of search results.
- 6 In the case of a combined service –
 - (a) the online safety objectives set out in paragraph 4 do not apply in relation to the search engine; 15
 - (b) the online safety objectives set out in paragraph 5 apply in relation to the search engine, and accordingly references in that paragraph to a search service are to be read as references to the search engine;
 - (c) the reference in paragraph 5(a)(iii) to a publicly available statement includes a reference to provisions of the terms of service which relate to the search engine. 20
- 7 The Secretary of State may by regulations amend paragraph 4 or 5 so as to vary the online safety objectives for regulated user-to-user services or regulated search services, and such regulations may make consequential amendments of paragraph 6. 25
- 8 If regulations are made amending the online safety objectives, OFCOM must, as soon as reasonably practicable after the regulations come into force, consider whether a review of the codes of practice published under section 42 is required and, if OFCOM consider that it is required, carry out a review to assess whether any amendments are needed to reflect the revised objectives. 30

Content of codes of practice

- 9 (1) Codes of practice that describe measures recommended for the purpose of compliance with a duty set out in section 9(2) or (3) (illegal content) must include measures in each of the areas of a service listed in section 9(4). 35
- (2) Codes of practice that describe measures recommended for the purpose of compliance with a duty set out in section 11(2) or (3) (children’s online safety) must include measures in each of the areas of a service listed in section 11(4). 40
- (3) Codes of practice that describe measures recommended for the purpose of compliance with a duty set out in section 24(2) or (3) (illegal content) must include measures in each of the areas of a service listed in section 24(4).
- (4) Codes of practice that describe measures recommended for the purpose of compliance with a duty set out in section 26(2) or (3) (children’s online safety) must include measures in each of the areas of a service listed in section 26(4). 45

- (5) Sub-paragraphs (1) to (4) apply to the extent that inclusion of the measures in question is consistent with paragraph 1(a) and the principles mentioned in paragraph 2(c) and (d).
- 10 (1) Measures described in a code of practice which are recommended for the purpose of compliance with any of the relevant duties must be designed in the light of the principles mentioned in sub-paragraph (2) and (where appropriate) incorporate safeguards for the protection of the matters mentioned in those principles. 5
- (2) The principles are –
- (a) the importance of protecting the right of users and (in the case of search services or combined services) interested persons to freedom of expression within the law, and 10
- (b) the importance of protecting the privacy of users.
- (3) In sub-paragraph (2)(b) the reference to protecting the privacy of users is to protecting users from a breach of any statutory provision or rule of law concerning privacy that is relevant to the use or operation of a user-to-user service or a search service (including, but not limited to, any such provision or rule concerning the processing of personal data). 15
- (4) In this paragraph “the relevant duties” means the duties set out in –
- (a) sections 9 and 24 (illegal content), 20
- (b) sections 11 and 26 (children’s online safety),
- (c) section 13 (adults’ online safety),

- 11 Measures described in a code of practice may relate only to the design or operation of a Part 3 service – 30
- (a) in the United Kingdom, or
- (b) as it affects United Kingdom users of the service.

Content of codes of practice: proactive technology

- 12 (1) If OFCOM consider it appropriate to do so, and in accordance with the principles to which they must have regard (see paragraphs 1 and 2 and, in particular, 10(2)), they may include in a code of practice a measure describing the use of a kind of technology. 35
- (2) But there are constraints, set out in the rest of this paragraph, on OFCOM’s power to include in a code of practice a measure describing the use of proactive technology as a way (or one of the ways) of complying with a duty set out in this Act (a “proactive technology measure”). 40
- (3) A proactive technology measure may be recommended only for the purpose of compliance with any of the duties set out in –
- (a) section 9(2) or (3) (illegal content),
- (b) section 11(2) or (3) (children’s online safety), 45
- (c) section 24(2) or (3) (illegal content),

- (d) section 26(2) or (3) (children’s online safety), or
 - (e) section 34(1) or 35(1) (fraudulent advertising).
- (4) A proactive technology measure may relate to the use of a kind of technology on or in relation to any Part 3 service or any part of such a service, but if the technology operates (or may operate) by analysing user-generated content or metadata relating to such content, the measure may not recommend the use of the technology to analyse user-generated content communicated privately, or metadata relating to user-generated content communicated privately. 5
- (5) A proactive technology measure may be included in a code of practice in relation to Part 3 services of a particular kind or size only if OFCOM are satisfied that use of the technology in question by such services would be proportionate to the risk of harm that the measure is designed to safeguard against (taking into account, in particular, the risk profile for the time being published by OFCOM under section 83 relating to such services). 10
- (6) In deciding whether to include a proactive technology measure in a code of practice, OFCOM must have regard to the degree of accuracy, effectiveness and lack of bias achieved by the technology in question, and may – 15
- (a) refer in the code of practice to existing industry or technical standards for the technology (where they exist); 20
 - (b) set out principles in the code of practice designed to ensure that the technology or its use is (so far as possible) accurate, effective and free of bias.

General

- 13 A code of practice may make different provision for different purposes and may, in particular – 25
- (a) make different provision with regard to –
 - (i) user-to-user services, and
 - (ii) search services;
 - (b) make different provision with regard to user-to-user services of different kinds or search services of different kinds; and 30
 - (c) otherwise differentiate between Part 3 services, and between providers of such services, in such manner as OFCOM consider appropriate.
- 14 A code of practice may apply in relation to a person who provides a Part 3 service from outside the United Kingdom. 35

- (3) Sub-paragraph (2)(b) does not apply if the person executing the warrant considers that providing a copy would result in undue delay.
- (4) Anything seized may be retained for so long as is necessary in all the circumstances. 40

Further provision about executing warrants

- 9 Entry and search under a warrant must be at a reasonable hour, unless it appears to the person executing it that the purpose of a search would be frustrated or seriously prejudiced by entry at a reasonable hour. 45

- 10 Entry and search under a warrant must be within the period of one month starting with the date of its issue.
- 11 An authorised person executing a warrant may take such other persons and such equipment and materials onto the premises as appear to that person to be necessary. 5
- 12 A person taken on to the premises under paragraph 11 may exercise any power conferred on an authorised person by paragraph 7 if the person is in the company and under the supervision of an authorised person executing a warrant.
- 13 An authorised person may use reasonable force, if necessary, for the purpose of exercising a power under a warrant. 10
- 14 A warrant authorises entry on one occasion only, unless it specifies that it authorises multiple entries.
- 15 If the premises are unoccupied or the occupier is temporarily absent, an authorised person executing a warrant must leave the premises as effectively secured against trespassers as that person found them. 15

Return of warrants

- (5) If during that period the occupier of premises to which the warrant relates asks to inspect it, the occupier must be allowed to do so.

Restrictions on powers

- 17 (1) This paragraph applies in relation to –
- (a) powers conferred by paragraph 2 (entry and inspection without warrant), and 40
 - (b) powers exercisable under a warrant.
- (2) Those powers are not exercisable in respect of domestic premises.

- (3) Those powers are not exercisable in relation to information or documents in respect of which a claim to legal professional privilege, or (in Scotland) to confidentiality of communications, could be maintained in legal proceedings.

SCHEDULE 12

Section 122

PENALTIES IMPOSED BY OFCOM UNDER CHAPTER 6 OF PART 7 10

Meaning of “penalty” in this Schedule

- 1 Except as otherwise indicated, references in this Schedule to a “penalty” are to any of the following –
 - (a) a penalty imposed by a confirmation decision (see sections 112(5)(b) and 117), whether that is –
 - (i) a penalty of a single amount, or
 - (ii) a penalty calculated by reference to a daily rate;
 - (b) a penalty imposed by a penalty notice under section 118;
 - (c) a penalty imposed by a penalty notice under section 119(5);
 - (d) a penalty imposed by a penalty notice under section 120(6). 20

Amount of penalties: principles

- 2 (1) In determining the amount of a penalty to be imposed on a person, OFCOM must, in particular, take into account –
 - (a) any representations made, and evidence provided, by the person, and 25
 - (b) the effects of the failure (or failures) in respect of which the penalty is imposed.
- (2) In the case of a penalty imposed by a confirmation decision, OFCOM must also take into account any representations made, and evidence provided, by any other person to whom the earlier provisional notice of contravention relating to the same matter was given. 30
- (3) OFCOM must also take into account –
 - (a) in the case of a penalty imposed by a confirmation decision, any steps taken by the person towards –
 - (i) complying with any duty or requirement specified in the provisional notice of contravention given to the person, or 35
 - (ii) remedying the failure to comply with any such duty or requirement;
 - (b) in the case of a penalty imposed by a penalty notice under section 118, any steps taken by the person towards – 40
 - (i) complying with any duty or requirement specified in the confirmation decision given to the person, or

- (ii) remedying the failure to comply with any such duty or requirement;
 - (c) in the case of a penalty imposed by a penalty notice under section 119(5), any steps taken by the person towards complying with the notice under section 103(1); 5
 - (d) in the case of a penalty imposed by a penalty notice under section 120(6), any steps taken by the person towards paying any amount of the fee due to OFCOM.
- (4) A penalty must be of an amount that OFCOM consider to be – 10
- (a) appropriate, and
 - (b) proportionate to the failure (or failures) in respect of which it is imposed.
- (5) See also section 392 of the Communications Act (which requires OFCOM to produce guidelines about their determination of the amount of penalties that they impose). 15

Limitation to type and amount of penalties previously proposed

- 3 (1) A confirmation decision or penalty notice may not impose a penalty of a different kind, of a greater amount or (in the case of a penalty calculated by reference to a daily rate) payable over a longer period than that proposed in the earlier notice in relation to the same matter. 20
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) applies in a case where a provisional notice of contravention and confirmation decision in relation to the same matter are both given jointly (in accordance with Schedule 14) to the same entities, but does not otherwise apply in relation to a penalty for which two or more entities are jointly and severally liable. 25
- (3) In this paragraph “penalty notice” means a penalty notice under section 118, 119(5) or 120(6).

Maximum amount of penalties

- 4 (1) Where a penalty is imposed on a person in respect of a regulated service provided by that person, the maximum amount of the penalty for which the person is liable is whichever is the greater of – 30
- (a) £18 million, and
 - (b) 10% of the person’s qualifying worldwide revenue for the person’s most recent complete accounting period (subject to sub-paragraph (5)). 35
- (2) But if the person does not have an accounting period, the maximum amount of the penalty for which the person is liable is £18 million.
- (3) The maximum amount of a penalty for which a person not within sub-paragraph (1) is liable is £18 million.
- (4) If the person’s first accounting period has not yet ended, sub-paragraph (1)(b) is to be read as referring to 10% of the amount that OFCOM estimate to be the person’s likely qualifying worldwide revenue for that period. 40
- (5) If the duration of the accounting period by reference to which an amount of qualifying worldwide revenue is calculated is less than a year, the amount mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(b) is to be proportionately increased. 45

- If the duration of that accounting period is more than a year, that amount is to be proportionately reduced.
- (6) The amount of a person’s qualifying worldwide revenue for an accounting period is, in the event of a disagreement between the person and OFCOM, the amount determined by OFCOM. 5
- (7) In the case of a confirmation decision that imposes a penalty of a single amount and a penalty calculated by reference to a daily rate, references in sub-paragraphs (1) to (3) to the maximum amount for which a person is liable are to the maximum amount of both those penalties taken together.
- (8) In this paragraph “accounting period”, in relation to a person, means a period in respect of which accounts are prepared in relation to that person or, where that person is an individual, in respect of that individual’s business of providing a regulated service. 10
- (9) In this paragraph and in paragraph 5, “qualifying worldwide revenue” has the meaning given to it in a statement produced and published by OFCOM under section 72 (see subsection (2) of that section). 15

Maximum amount of penalties: group of entities

- 5 (1) This paragraph contains modifications of paragraph 4 in a case where, in accordance with Schedule 14, two or more entities are jointly and severally liable for a penalty. 20
- (2) Sub-paragraphs (3) to (5) of this paragraph apply instead of paragraph 4(1) to (4).
- (3) The maximum amount of the penalty for which the entities are liable is whichever is the greater of – 25
- (a) £18 million, and
- (b) 10% of the qualifying worldwide revenue of the group of entities that consists of – 30
- (i) the entity that is the provider of the regulated service to which the decision or notice in question relates (“entity E”), and
- (ii) every other entity which (at the time the decision or notice is given) is a group undertaking in relation to entity E.
- (4) In sub-paragraph (3)(b), the reference to the qualifying worldwide revenue of a group of entities is to – 35
- (a) the amount of the group’s qualifying worldwide revenue for the most recent complete accounting period of the entities liable for the penalty, or
- (b) if the first accounting period of the entities liable for the penalty has not yet ended, the amount that OFCOM estimate to be the group’s likely qualifying worldwide revenue for that period. 40
- (5) In a case where the accounting periods of the entities liable for the penalty are different – 45
- (a) the reference in sub-paragraph (4)(a) to the accounting period of the entities is to be read as a reference to the accounting period of any of the entities (at OFCOM’s discretion), and
- (b) sub-paragraph (4)(b) is to apply as if –

- (i) for “the first accounting period of the entities” there were substituted “the first accounting period of all of the entities”, and
 - (ii) for “that period” there were substituted “the accounting period of any of the entities (at OFCOM’s discretion)”. 5
- (6) Sub-paragraphs (5), (6) and (7) of paragraph 4 are to be read with the necessary modifications in their application for the purposes of this paragraph.
- (7) In this paragraph –
 - “accounting period”, in relation to an entity, means a period in respect of which accounts are prepared in relation to that entity; 10
 - “group undertaking” has the meaning given by section 1161(5) of the Companies Act 2006.
- (8) For the purposes of this paragraph, sections 1161(5) and 1162 of, and Schedule 7 to, the Companies Act 2006 – 15
 - (a) are to apply in relation to an entity which is not an undertaking (as defined in section 1161(1) of that Act) as they apply in relation to an undertaking, and
 - (b) are to be read with any necessary modifications if applied to an entity formed under the law of a country outside the United Kingdom. 20

Providers of regulated services

- 6 Any power conferred by Chapter 6 of Part 7 to impose a penalty on a provider of a regulated service is to be read as including power to impose a penalty on a person who was at any time a provider of such a service but who has ceased to be a provider of such a service (and that Chapter and this Schedule are to be read accordingly). 25

Recovery of penalties

- 7 (1) In England and Wales, a penalty is recoverable –
 - (a) if the county court so orders, as if it were payable under an order of that court; 30
 - (b) if the High Court so orders, as if it were payable under an order of that court.
- (2) In Scotland, a penalty may be enforced in the same manner as an extract registered decree arbitral bearing a warrant for execution issued by the sheriff court of any sheriffdom in Scotland. 35
- (3) In Northern Ireland, a penalty is recoverable –
 - (a) if a county court so orders, as if it were payable under an order of that court;
 - (b) if the High Court so orders, as if it were payable under an order of that court. 40

Paying penalties into the Consolidated Fund
